VALUE ACHIEVED

- Hiring design and construction teams that worked nationally
- Creating a Standardized process for roll-out clinics
- Bringing cost reducing ideas and value added concepts to the team throughout the process

CBRE's real estate and healthcare project management groups were key partners in implementing Cargill's near site employee clinics over the past year. CBRE provided the specialized knowledge necessary to take the lead on coordination of a project of this size within our condensed timeframes, saving us amounts of internal time and resources.
